Derco Signs Agreement with ATK to Distribute Missile Warning and Surveillance Systems

Farnborough Air Show, July 21, 2010 (Hall 4, Stand D10) – Derco Aerospace, Inc., a Sikorsky Aerospace Services company, announced today it has signed an agreement with Alliant Techsystems (NYSE: ATK) to distribute its AAR-47 Missile and Laser Warning System and Roll-on/Roll-off Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance (RORO ISR) systems for C-130 and L-100 aircraft. Sikorsky Aerospace Services is the worldwide aftermarket business of Sikorsky Aircraft Corp., a subsidiary of United Technologies Corp. (NYSE: UTX).

With distribution in 15 countries, this new agreement further solidifies Derco's position as a total aftermarket support provider for aircraft operators worldwide. The AAR-47 and RORO ISR systems are designed to be compatible with C-130 and L-100 aircraft operating in hostile environments. These systems will help ensure the safe execution of strategic and humanitarian missions.

“We are excited to become ATK's distributor for the AAR-47 and RORO ISR systems,” said Paul Fuhrmann, Derco's Director of OEM and Repair Solutions. “This agreement further expands our portfolio of mission-specific, high-technology modifications and upgrades supporting fixed-wing aircraft.”

Founded in 1979, Derco Aerospace Inc. is based in Milwaukee, Wis., and is a world leader in providing aircraft spares distribution, logistics solutions, repair services and technical solutions to customers around the globe.
