Derco receives perfect ISO surveillance audit score

Milwaukee, Wis., May 20, 2010 – Derco Aerospace, a Sikorsky Aerospace Services company, received a perfect score from the Performance Review Institute (PRI) Registrar during its annual ISO surveillance audit. The audit evaluates Derco's compliance with the ISO 9001: 2008, AS9100 and AS9110 quality standards. Sikorsky Aerospace Services is the worldwide aftermarket business of Sikorsky Aircraft Corp., a subsidiary of United Technologies Corp. (NYSE: UTX).

"Derco's comprehensive quality management system continues to follow the most rigorous set of compliance requirements in the aerospace industry," said Mark Hoehnen, president of Derco Aerospace, Inc. "Our system is designed to ensure customers receive quality products every time."

Derco's score will remain on SAE / IAQG's Online Aerospace Supplier Information System (OASIS) database. The database lists approved accreditation bodies, registration bodies, aerospace-experienced auditors and registered suppliers that have attained accredited registration. Aerospace customers use the OASIS database to identify suppliers that are certified to all industry quality standards.

According to the audit report from PRI Registrar, "Derco should be considered a quality leader in its class." PRI provides international, unbiased, independent manufacturing process and product assessments and certification services for the
